Cancer benefit

Tourney is Saturday

The third annual Walter Hagan Golf Tournament to benefit the Appomattox County Unit of the American Cancer Society will be held this Saturday, July 14 at Falling River Country Club.

The date for the tournament was incorrectly listed in the June 27 issue of the Times-Virginian.

All proceeds from the tournament will go to help the Appomattox Unit meet their fundraising goal, and help supply special assistance to local patients.

As in past years, sponsors will be needed to back the teams competing. Most of the sponsors will be local businesses or private individuals wishing to take part.

Anyone wishing to sponsor a team may do so by contacting Mrs. Dan Coleman, member of the ACS board.

Free food and drink will be prepared and served by the Appomattox ACS board members, with drinks donated by Pepsi Cola Bottlers of Lynchburg.

In past years, winning teams have gone on to play in the state Walter Hagan Golf Tournament.

ONCE AGAIN, 4-Hers from East Central District enjoyed a fun-filled week at Holiday Lake 4-H Educational Center. The week is filled with various activities in which the campers may participate. In order to recognize one individual who has participated in the activities, demonstrated good sportsmanship, and has been an asset to the camp, the extension agents and camp staff select an individual who meets these criteria. For the first 4-H camp group for the season, Eric Sales was selected as "Camper of the Week." Eric is from Amherst County and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Sales.
